

War, Faith and Reconciliation

6th Form Conference

Wednesday 7th November 2018 Salisbury Cathedral

As the nation commemorates 100 years since the end of the end of The Great War and when many young people feel that faith and religion are the cause of wars across the world we will gather to consider the issues of war, faith and reconciliation in historic and current conflict. Including WW1, Northern Ireland and South Sudan; the importance of memorial and remembrance and the role faith can play in reconciliation.

Programme for the Day:

Time
09.30	Registration, Cloisters. Be seated in North Transcept by 09.55
10.00	Introduction/Welcome - Dean of Salisbury Cathedral
10.10	Remembering and Forgetting: the place of memory in history Martyn Whittock An experienced history teacher, lecturer and author. He has acted as an historical consultant to the National Trust and English Heritage.
11.00 – 11.10	Break
11.10 -12:00	Culture, Politics and Religion and the Power of Reconciliation John Mann and Martha Jarvis John Mann - Dean Belfast Cathedral 2011-2017. In 2018 he was awarded the Lambeth Cross for Ecumenism by The Archbishop of Canterbury and Martha Jarvis - Archbishop of Canterbury's Reconciling Leaders Network
12.00 – 12.40	Lunch break
12.40 – 13.00	Churches in the Midst of Conflict, South Sudan Ian Woodward Chair Salisbury Diocese Sudans Link
13.00 -13.55	Workshops
14:00 -14:30	Personal Reflective Activity
14.30	Plenary and Prayer for Peace
15:00	Close

Afternoon workshops will provide the students with an opportunity to respond to what they have heard from the speakers.

Cost: £4 per student. Please note students will remain the responsibility of their school staff throughout the day.

To book please complete the booking form attached and return to Emma Waters emma.waters@salisbury.anglican.org by Monday 15th October.

The conference is jointly organised by Salisbury Diocese Board of Education and Salisbury Cathedral with funding from the Sarum St Michael Educational Charity

